CLEVELAND is a second Tilden.

EVERYBODY should jollify to-night.

THE democratic rooster will now Grover Cleveland.

REV. DWIGHT L. MOODY sailed on Sunday for New York.

MR. TILDEN is a unit in the endorsement of the democratic ticket.

VANDERBILT'S household expenses are said to reach $250,000 a year.

LONDON has a greater population than the entire Dominion of Canada.

OF seventeen German papers in Ohio, not one, it is said, supports Blaine.

THE question is, where is Conkling and the rest of his friends all this time?

SOME Flowers are born to blush unseen and to waste their sweetness on the desert air.

BACHELOR candidates for the presidency have been rather successful in their candidacy.

QUEEN VICTORIA has an elephant on her hands now. King John, of Abyssinia, has sent her a live one.

THE United States so-called minister to England is recovering from the gout. This is certainly cheering news.

CLEVELAND and Hendricks are gaining in popular favor. There will be a solid body marching to the polls this fall.

NO college has as yet conferred a degree upon Governor Cleveland. The people will attend to this little matter later.

GOVERNOR CLEVELAND has no real estate and is estimated to be worth in personal property about $5,000. Blaine is a millionaire.

THE grand old state of Indiana has not been backward in ratifying the nominations. Next November the ratification will be larger than ever before.

IT appears that Blaine's relatives have been drawing $20,000 a year from the public treasury since 1860. It is very probable that these men will support the "plumed knight."

"BOSS" SHEPHERD, after acquiring considerable wealth by mining in Mexico, will return to Washington, where his admirers propose to give him a grand reception. Now where's Dorsey?

THE Illinois department of agriculture reports an average yield of winter wheat in the northern division, and about three-fourths of a crop in the central and southern portions of the state.

THE band in the Chicago convention played the old and familiar air of "Dixie" and now the republican party are howling about the "rebel yell at Chicago." With such statements this campaign promises to be devoid of a full and fair discussion of the issues between the parties.

THE oldest delegate to the late democratic national convention was Dr. Uriah Terrill, of Virginia, who is ninety-two years of age, served in the war of 1812, entered politics in Jackson's first campaign, and went first to a national convention in 1844, to vote and work for Henry Clay.

THE way Governor Hendricks opened the campaign gives evidence that he will make things lively in spite of that sore leg.

THERE'S one thing about the democratic candidates. Mr. Cleveland never wrote a book and Mr. Hendricks never wrote doggerel poetry.

THE campaign has opened and the democrats are anxiously expecting the first installment of lies from our untrammeled and high-minded cotemporaries.

THE independents are with us. Now there is a chance for Blaine to exercise a little magnetism. Dr. Blaine should not become discouraged so early in the campaign.

THE judge of the Columbus, Ohio, common pleas court has vindicated the law by declaring that Sunday base ball playing is a breach of the peace. If it is a breach now let the law be enforced.

THE remains of James A. McGahan, the celebrated journalist, now on their way from Russia, will be laid to rest in New Lexington, Ohio, in August. The different journalistic of the state will take part in the ceremony. McGahan's life was the subject of an article in THE SENTINEL a short time ago and his history is generally familiar.

"Cleveland," says ex-Controller S. Davis Page, of Philadelphia, "represents the idea of administrative reform which was always near to Tilden's heart and in the latter's inability to personally represent that idea, it is fitting that Governor Cleveland should be taken as his representative, while in the selection of Mr. Hendricks for the second place on the ticket, taken together with Cleveland as representing Tilden, puts before the people a favorable opportunity at this time to express their condemnation of the fraud of 1876, which imperiled our institutions."

A FEW clap-trap republican sheets have been trying to gain sympathy for their candidates because Cleveland, while sheriff, hung two men. When a party is driven to such arguments it shows that there is nothing in a candidate's record to assail. The fact that Grover Cleveland swung two men into eternity while acting in his official capacity, under the orders of the court and in obedience to the law is petty argument against his fitness. Cleveland never failed to discharge a duty and for this people, of all political and religious belief, will commend him.

THE Capital, at Washington, D. C., says: "The Capital is not anxious to figure as a political prophet, but it sincerely believes that Mr. Cleveland is going to be elected this year, and it supposes that if he is elected Mr. Hendricks will be elected too. The people who talk so glibly of Cleveland and Hendricks being easily beaten either do not mean what they say, or else do not know what they are talking about. The ticket from a fighting point of view is unassailable, and, to a host of republicans, it is entirely acceptable. It will grow in strength and public confidence every day from now until November."

SOME republican sheets, the only which always fall back on the war for sentiment in a political campaign, are making people tired with their howlings about Cleveland sending a substitute when he was drafted. They forget that Blaine did the same thing except that he (Blaine) got his substitute in an easy position where he never scented burning powder. They forget too that Logan in the early days of the rebellion sent soldiers into the southern army and that indisputable evidence exists of his pro-slavery views. They should be picking the dust out of their own eyes before they go into the good work for others.

THE Massachusetts Reform club, at its meeting a day or two ago, adopted resolutions formally indorsing Cleveland and Hendricks. The attendance was the largest in the history of the club. Speeches favorable to Cleveland were made by John S. Fowler, the president of the club; Col. Theodore Lyman, the independent congressman from the Ninth district, George Frederick Williams, late secretary of the Norfolk club, another political organization, from which position he retired because he would not support Blaine and Logan; Col. T. W. Higginson, Edwin Atkinson, William Everett, Frank Bird, Winslow Warren and others. A telegram was sent to Governor Cleveland congratulating him upon the nomination, rejoicing that he was selected to lead the opposition to Blaine, and tenders him the assurance of its enthusiastic support.

FATHER GOETZ, of Dayton, proposes a plan to pay off the $4,000,000 indebtedness of the late Archbishop Purcell, of Cincinnati. It is on the English coupon system, which has proved successful. The Catholics and other charitably-disposed persons of the city organize themselves into an association for the purpose of paying the debt overhanging the church. Books costing $1 each are sold to members. In them are the names of all merchants and mechanics of the city who agree to give members of the association rebate tickets for 5 per cent. of the value of their purchases. These rebate tickets in amount equivalent to not less than $5 are redeemed at a certain bank named in the book, but it is expected that they will all be donated to church agents, who will cash them and apply the proceeds to the church debt. By this fund if the people would enter into it heartily, the whole debt could be paid in less than ten years, for if each of the 250,000 persons would save five cents a week in tickets, during that time, $8,000,000, or twice the amount of the debt, would have been accumulated.

GROVER CLEVELAND AND THE ROMAN CATHOLICS.

Assemblyman Thomas V. Welch, of Niagara county, publishes the following letter in the Buffalo Courier:

To the Editor of the Courier:

I noticed with regret that some persons in the democratic party of the state of New York who oppose the nomination of Grover Cleveland for president are endeavoring to create a false impression by grossly misrepresenting his position toward the Catholic church. As a Catholic and a member of the legislature during the last two years, I can not recall any act or omission of Governor Cleveland that would in the slightest degree justify any such impression. On the contrary, Governor Cleveland always treated Catholics and Catholic interests precisely as he did the members of other religious bodies and their religious interests—fairly and justly according to their merit—and I believe that to be as much as any sensible Catholic expects or desires. Having served upon the committee of ways and means of the assembly during the sessions of 1883 and 1884, and in the discharge of official duties having had frequent occasions to know that no man is more free from bigotry or more broad and comprehensive in his religious views than Governor Cleveland, as a sincere and practical Catholic, under the existing circumstances, I deem it a duty to my co-religionists to make a public statement of my absolute knowledge of that fact. THOMAS V. WELCH.

Niagara Falls, June 26, 1884.

GROVER CLEVELAND.

From the New York Times (Rep.)

The advance of Grover Cleveland, of Buffalo, in the last three years to his present conspicuous place before the country, has been due solely to the unswerving fidelity of the man to a high sense of duty in public position. A successful lawyer and a respected citizen, who had held such positions as assistant district attorney and sheriff of his county acceptably, he was made a candidate for mayor of the city of Buffalo at a time when a man was wanted for the place whose name alone would mean reform—a man of such unquestionable ability, such undoubted integrity, and such unimpeachable independence and courage that his election could mean nothing but reform. The result justified the selection, not only in success at the polls, but in the spirit of the administration which followed. The same qualities and their practical illustration in the Buffalo mayoralty led to Mr. Cleveland's nomination for governor of the state without any seeking of his own, and the same popular confidence elicited by such qualities was displayed in the state canvass of 1882. In the office of governor of the largest and richest state of the union Mr. Cleveland has risen to the full measure of its requirements in administrative capacity, and has maintained, under the full pressure of partisan schemers and self-seekers—the strongest, perhaps, anywhere exerted in the country—his exalted views of public duties, his integrity of action, and his unflinching independence and courage. This it is that has attracted so many eyes to him at this juncture as the fittest man for the presidency, although he has never taken a conspicuous part in party councils and has never been associated with official life at the capital of the nation.

Mr. McKinnie will retain a large herd of Jersey cows and a fine team of horses besides the farm animals.

The democrats of the Eleventh congressional district are in convention to-day at Portland for the purpose of nominating a candidate for congressman. Hon. John A. Farrar, of Peru, has again entered the race, and he and Major Kidd, of Wabash, are the only candidates. Col. I. P. Gray and General Manson were expected to be present and a grand democratic rally is in progress at that place.

C. C. Sutton, the Romney druggist, the destruction of whose building by a mob is familiar to Fort Wayne readers, and who has been so much prosecuted, was released from durance vile Saturday morning, after having served fifty-five days of his sentence in the county jail, Judge Qint having decided that when a person was sentenced to serve out one or more judgments and entered on the service of the penalties all on one day, he served them all out at once.

A little child of Will Sager, of 69 Butler street, this morning drank a cup of concentrated lye. The child was instantly doubled up and would have died but for the presence of mind of its parents, who forced the little one to drink a quantity of milk sufficient to neutralize the lye.

A coat of varnish on the wood work and the glazing of the sash doors is all that is now needed to complete the bath rooms of the Railroad Young Men's Christian association. Workmen are now busily engaged at this work. Members of the association should procure their annual tickets at once, as only those persons holding membership tickets will be permitted to use the bath rooms. The tickets are in the hands of the Secretary More, at the rooms.

The first voters of the Sixth ward met last night and effected a fine organization, which will be sure to make itself felt during the campaign. The following officers were elected: President, F. J. It is a sorrowful spectacle when a man has abandoned all the pleasures of life the victim of suffering and disease. Charles Northrup, of Woodmont, Conn., who had been afflicted with rheumatism for years, had made up his mind that he would be obliged to suffer the remainder of his days. He was induced to try Athlophoros, and now when he has any pain he takes a dose of the great specific and by this means keeps his enemy at bay and enjoys life.

After two applications of St. Jacobs Oil, the great pain cure, they were entirely cured and I have not been troubled with them since."

Petroleum V. Nasby.

D. R. Locke, Petroleum V. Nasby, editor Toledo Blade, writes: "I had on a forefinger of my right hand one of those pleasant pets, a "run-round." The finger became inflamed to a degree unbearable and swollen to nearly twice its natural size. A friend gave me Henry's carbolic salve, and in twenty minutes the pain had so much subsided as to give me a fair night's rest, which I had not had before a week. The inflammation left the finger in a day. I consider it a most valuable article."

The Boston Store.

The sweeping mark-down sale of dry-goods at the Boston Store has created general public interest and is meeting with the success it deserves. Goods have been marked down so low as to insure a thorough clearance previous to an inventory and new fall goods. Satisfactory Advertising.

Mr. Henry D. Nunn, of the firm of T. T. & H. D. Nunn, advertising sign writers of Cincinnati, Ohio, left our city yesterday for Lima, Ohio, which will form the base of further opperations in their line, while Mr. Theodore Nunn will remain to complete additional contracts with nearly all the firms who were their patrons. Their work has proven so satisfactory that our merchants have enlarged upon their former contracts, the work being the best of its kind that has been done at Fort Wayne. Persons now driving on the Maysville pike, New Haven, Piqua, Decatur, Bluffton, Illinois, Arcola and Lima roads will see the sign work done by them on the fences. Prominent among the firms advertised are H. J. Ash, stove dealer; W. H. Fleming, boots and shoes; T. S. Nollou & Co., hardware; Fort Wayne Paint and Color Painting company; O. L. Starkey & Co.; Dreier Bros., druggists; J. C. Hilt, saddles and harness; New York Five and Ten Cent Bazaar; Globe Mills, and the White Fawn Baking Powder, the most prominent being the enterprising firm of A. S. Lauferty & Co., C. O. D. clothiers, 9 East Main street, who seem to have gone into it in earnest, as their signs appear numerously a distance of eight miles out. Any one coming in the city from any of these directions must be impressed with the signs, as they are plainly and clearly lettered with black on white.

Miss Zadie Troutman, of Bluffton, who has been visiting friends in Michigan and this city, will return home to-morrow.

Linda Gilbert praises it. Linda Gilbert, whose benevolent work, for prison reform, is known everywhere, says: "I find your most valuable Pond's Extract not only a delightful auxiliary to the bath, but extremely beneficial to any head trouble arising from over-taxed mental conditions, its effect on the nervous system being especially good. I regard it as a great boon to humanity, and used with judgment will alleviate most of the sufferings that nervous brain workers are subject to." Respectfully, Linda Gilbert.

Boats, Bicycles and Hay Fever.

With the opening of the season of outdoor sports comes the time of trouble for the poor victims of hay fever. For them flowers have no odor, and the summer little or no beauty. To snuff, sneeze and wipe their weeping eyes for three or four successive months—this is their pitiable portion. There is no help in sea voyages, there is no help in high mountain air. These only lighten the pocket and leave the disease unabated. But there is a positive cure in Ely's cream balm. Try it. If you continue to suffer it is because you neglect a remedy as sure as it is cheap and pleasant.

Fruit House Prices for 1884.

For the last six months there has been a steady decline on Sugars. They are now selling at the lowest point they have been for twenty years. Coffee A, 7½c.; Coffee C, 6c.; Yellow New Orleans, 6c.; Cut Loaf and granulated, 8c.

RIO COFFEE

Has advanced in New York 3 cents per pound. We fortunately had purchased a large stock before the advance and continue to sell at old prices. Best Golden Rio, 19½c.; Roasted Rio, 16c.; Old Government Java, 30c.; Roasted Java, 25c.

TEAS: Japan, Young Hyson, Oolong and English Breakfast.

Our great Tea trade is the wonder of this part of the country. There is no secret in it: it is simply our purchasing our Teas in large lots, direct of the importers in New York and reselling direct to our customers at small profit. This saves to our customers all intermediate profits of the jobber, speculator and wholesale merchant, which is at least 10 to 20 cents per pound. Young Hyson, 15c., 20c.; best, 25c. per pound; Gunpowder, 25c.; best, 30c. per pound; Imperial, 25c.; best, 30c. per pound; Oolong, 15c., 20c.; best, 25c. per pound; Japan, 25c., 30c.; best, 35c per pound; English Breakfast 20c.; best, 25c. per pound.

But the Greatest Decline and Bargains of All is on Prunes.

The best Turkish Prunes now reduced to 8 cents per pound. They are new fruit and the finest in the market. The low price of Prunes is owing to the fact that Turkey had an immense crop this last season. Never in the history of the country have they been sold so cheap as at the present time.

Canned Fruit, Peaches, Tomatoes, Etc

Three lb Peaches, 25c.; 2lb Pie Peaches, 20c.; 2lb Tomatoes, 20c.; Corn, 10 and 15½c.; Quinces, 15c.; California Fruits, 20c.
